In Memoriam

In memory of Early Allen Franklin who departed this life on October 22, 1969.
It does not seem as though it's been five years since you left us and brought many tears.
We will always think of you as each day goes by
And yet we sometimes ask the question WHY?
God took you from us, we know it's true
But we will always continue to love you
Sadly missed by wife, children and grandchildren

...lders Discover Ground Game, ...t Altavista For Homecoming

SPORTS

After a loss of two yards and a penalty set the Colonels back to the seven, Coleman evened things up by recovering a Moses James fumble at the two. Two plays later Lipford cracked into the end zone over right tackle and Coleman's conversion gave Appomattox a 7-0 lead.

Coleman fumbled again mid-way through the second quarter and Altavista took over at the Raider's 43. A penalty and two short gains moved the ball to the 24 before quarterback Bill Robbins threw incomplete on a fourth down play.

Appomattox moved 76 yards in 16 plays with Lipford scoring from the one with 1:23 left in the half. Lipford had rushed for 18 yards and Hancock for 14 during the drive. The Raiders had put the ball in the air only once, an incomplete pass from Mac Weaver intended for Ricky Wingfield.

The third quarter was a stalemate as neither team could sustain a drive.

Weaver came into the ball game in the fourth quarter and the Raiders went to the air in an effort to regain their momentum. Weaver was successful on only three of eight passes, but one of them was a four yard touchdown strike to Dicky Kelso, capping a drive that had began on the Altavista 49.

During the drive Weaver passed for Wingfield for 18 yards and to Simmons for 12. Hancock rushed for 17 yards on two carries to keep the drive alive.

The Raiders meet Liberty in Bedford Friday night. The Minutemen are experiencing a rugged season. Last year's district runner-up has been beaten by Nelson County, Rustburg and William Campbell, but stayed one of the season's surprises by battling Brookville to 0-0 tie on the Bees' home field.

1923 E. Main St., Salem, Va.

annual session of the Baptist General Association of Virginia. The General Association session will be held at the First Baptist Church, Roanoke, Nov. 12-14.

The purpose of the men's rally is to give special emphasis to the laity of the churches, and to invite them to participate in this time of inspiration and fellowship. The rally is held in conjunction with the Baptist General Association as a means of encouraging the laity to become more actively involved in General Association affairs.

Guest speakers for the rally will include Captain Eugene McDaniel, USN, and Mr. William Brammer. McDaniel was a prisoner of war for six years and has been described as "one of the most brutally tortured Americans to survive Vietnam." He says of his ordeal, "My faith in God never wavered, nor did my faith in my country and my family. I felt God's presence in my prison cell. He gave the strength and courage to survive." McDaniel has also been featured on national television in a film, "P.O.W."

William Brammer is a resident of Narrows, Va. where he serves as Assistant Postmaster. He and his wife served as part of a task force of laymen and women who participated in the Nigerian Evangelistic Campaign. Brammer will share his experiences as a volunteer part-time missionary.

Special music will be provided by the Virginia Baptist Male Chorale under the direction of Allen Brown, Secretary of the Department of Church Music, Virginia Baptist General Board. The Chorale is composed of about 35 professional musicians. Each person is a full-time staff member in a Virginia Baptist church with responsibility for the music of the church. The Chorale will present a concert at 7:15 p.m. and will close the rally with more special music. The rally is sponsored by the Baptist Men's Department of the Virginia Baptist General Board and families and friends are invited and welcome.

National Girls' Basketball League Being Formed

Push over boys! Little League, Babe Ruth League, Boys Baseball, Pop Warner football, American Legion base ball - to mention but a few national program operating "for boys only" - will soon be joined by an All-America Girls' Basketball Conference.

The newly - organized basketball league, probably the first for girls on a national scale, will move onto the court this fall. And the organizers behgind the scene anticipate girls flocking to "their program" in impressive numbers.

The primary aim of the Conference is to contribute to the total fitness of the individual girl - physical, mental and emotional - through a program of leisure rimw enjoyment.

The program is divided into two divisions - Senior play for girls 14 and 15 and the Junior Division for the 12 and 13 age group. Team rosters will be limited to 12 players. Either female or male coaches will be permitted to coach.

The AAGBC has adopted the Division for Girls and Women's Sports (DGWS) rules for its program.

The number of leagues organized in its initial year of play will determine whether or not tournaments will be conducted in 1974.

Conference plans list four playoff championships: State, Sectional, Regional and National in the month of December.

Unlike many of the boys programs, where all - star squads are chosen from the teams to represent their leagues in tournament play, the AAGBC qualifies each league champion team automatically into its state championship. This unique formula does away with favorites for all-star berths, bickering among coaches and frustrations among parents and fans.

Individual and team trophies to champions in tournament divisions will be awarded by Headquarters.

Local leagues will not be permitted to start their season until Sept. 1 with practice sessions allowed for the month of August.

Competition is scheduled during Sept., Oct. and Nov. - the months when public basketball facilities are least liable to be tied up by existing leagues.

Leagues will be limitged to four to six teams. A minimum and maximum of 10 and 16 games per team during the regular season will be permitted. Senior division girls will play seven minute periods while the Junior leaguers will play six minute quarters.

Teams will be required to carry group protective insurance.
